Montrose Aged Care Centre, run by The Salvation Army Aged Care, provides aged care services for men with behavioural and mental health concerns. Located just a few minutes from the heart of the Sydney CBD, we are close to shops, public transport and many health related services. Our care services include 24-hour permanent residential care, behavioural and mental health support, memory support, palliative care and respite (short-term) care. We also offer eligible residents NDIS services (subject to assessment) with in-house NDIS support coordination and staff. Our compassionate staff go beyond the clinical to cater for the physical, emotional and spiritual wellbeing of our residents in order to provide them with the best care. Our other services include fully-furnished and spacious single rooms, freshly cooked meals prepared on site, exercise & wellbeing programs, visiting health specialists, amenities including recreational room & lawn bowl green, and pastoral & chaplaincy services.
